- To take responsibility for the development of a curriculum area
- To deliver curriculum sessions to parents and teaching staff
- To manage behaviour through positive reinforcement and role-modelling
- To participate in meetings as and when required
- To lead, direct and communicate effectively with support staff within the classroom
- To communicate and cooperate with external agencies and future schools as and when necessary
- To take responsibility for finding opportunities in which to further their professional development
- To observe, both formally and informally, other teachers within the school
- To participate in their own appraisals, and other staff, if asked
- To visit other schools and share good practice
- To be able to work in a team, whilst also being able to use your own initiative

- To take responsibility for the development of children in the school beyond those just in their own class
- To run an After School Club
- To provide cover for staff as and when required
- To show good organisational and time-management skills

Whole School Trust

- Support the aims and core values of the Trust and adhere to all policies and procedures;
- To attend regularly and contribute to all necessary assemblies, staff meetings, professional learning sessions etc. and to attend parents’ evenings and school events when required;
- To develop and maintain professional, productive relationships with all staff members;
- To be aware of equal opportunities and to demonstrate these principles in all aspects of work;
- To understand the Trust’s health and safety policy and to work within its guidelines;
- To be aware of your responsibility for promoting and safeguarding the welfare of young persons whom you have contact with during the course of your duties;
- Any other reasonable project or duty assigned by your Line Manager and/or the Director Finance and Resources /Headmaster [delete as appropriate]

Whilst every effort has been made to explain the main duties and responsibilities of the post, employees will be expected to comply with any reasonable request from the Headmaster to undertake work of a similar level that is not specified in this job description.
